Regardless of any expected reliance on third-party resources, including but not limited to financial aid, family gifts, employer reimbursement or any other external resource, I remain personally responsible for paying any and all outstanding balances, which collectively represent my student financial obligation. I understand that the enrollment action constitutes a binding obligation between the student and Southern Methodist University and all proceeds of this agreement will be used for educational purposes and constitute an educational loan pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(8).

WITHDRAWAL POLICY

I understand that in accordance with Southern Methodist University's Office of the University Registrar's withdrawal policy and the refund schedule as published in the Financial Information Bulletin, my effective date of withdrawal will determine the amount of credit that I may be eligible to receive, thereby reducing the total amount of fees owed to Southern Methodist University. Students are encouraged to discuss the financial implications of their withdrawal with their Financial Aid advisor and the Office of the University Bursar before making the decision to withdraw. FINANCIAL AID

I understand aid described as "estimated" on my Financial Aid Award does not represent actual or guaranteed payment but is an estimate of the aid I may receive if I meet all requirements stipulated by that specific aid program.

I understand my Financial Aid Award is contingent upon my continued enrollment and attendance in each class upon which my financial aid eligibility was calculated. If I drop any class before completion, I understand my financial aid eligibility may decrease and some or all of the financial aid awarded to me may be revoked.

If some or all of my financial aid is revoked because I dropped or failed to attend a class, I agree to repay all revoked aid disbursed to my account and resulted in a credit balance refunded to me.
