

Master of Sacred Music Application Requirements for Academic Concentrations

Liturgical Musicology

In addition to the general application requirements for the M.S.M. degree, the applicant must provide evidence of writing skills and the ability to conduct scholarly research on a selected topic with a ten-page paper and an annotated bibliography of at least five sources. These materials will be submitted through the Perkins School of Theology Application.

Music Education

In addition to the general application requirements for the M.S.M. degree, applicants for the concentration in music education will provide a video clip (such as a Vimeo or Youtube link) representing their teaching in a normal rehearsal or classroom setting with children, middle school, or high school students. The video should d
