Proposal

When preparing your proposal, keep the following points in mind:

- A. Explain specifically what you are planning to do, where you are going, and why you want to do your project.
- B. Do the background research. What are the resources available to you here on campus to help you prepare for your project? Have you consulted these resources? Where else might you find information to help you prepare for your project? Clearly cite all sources used in preparing your proposal. You may use any standard documentation method: footnotes, in-text documentation, or a works cited page.
- C.
